InBev announces EBM changes

InBev (Euronext: INB) announced today that Stéfan Descheemaeker, Alain Beyens and Francisco Sá are appointed to new positions

Stéfan Descheemaeker will take on new responsibilities as Chief Strategy Officer and will be succeeded as Zone President Western Europe by Alain Beyens, currently Zone President Central & Eastern Europe.

The Chief Strategy Officer role will be a new position at the Executive Board of Management, ensuring renewed focus on long term strategy. Stéfan joined the organization in 1996, leading the Business Development and External Growth function up to the creation of InBev in 2004. Since then he has led the company's US business, the Central & Eastern European Zone and, most recently, the Western European Zone, where the focus has been on both creating growth and reducing non-working costs against the backdrop of challenging market trends. In 2006 Stéfan and his team delivered sound organic EBITDA margin expansion. This year, in a business environment that continued to be challenging, the Western Europe Zone realized share gains in all major markets except the United Kingdom, while continuing to deliver savings.

Alain joined InBev in 1987, holding various positions in Distribution and Sales before being appointed General Manager of InBev Belgium in 1999. In 2002, Alain became Regional President BeNeFraLux, and in 2005 Business Unit President InBev Germany, Italy, Spain, Cuba, France and The Netherlands before being appointed Zone President Central & Eastern Europe in January 2006. Under Alain's leadership the CEE Zone has realized consistent double-digit growth in sales volume and EBITDA. In building on the foundations laid by Stéfan, Alain brings an outstanding track record in operational and commercial excellence: two elements that will be instrumental to guaranteeing future success for the WE Zone.

Alain's successor will be Francisco Sá, who is currently VP Soft Drinks for Latin America North. Francisco joined the company in 1998, and has since taken on progressively senior roles including Direct Distribution Manager, Regional Sales Director and, since 2005, VP Soft Drinks for Latin America North (LAN). Francisco has a proven track record of delivering strong top line results combined with tightly managed costs and effective leadership, which puts him in an excellent position to build further on the strong CEE business fundamentals laid out by Alain.

All of these changes will be effective January 1, 2008.

InBev announces AmBev intent to make a voluntary offer to purchase any and all outstanding shares of Quilmes Industrial S.A. ("Quinsa")

InBev (Euronext:INB) announces that AmBev's board of directors has approved a plan to make a voluntary offer to purchase any and all Class A shares and Class B shares (including Class B shares held as American Depositary Shares ("ADSs")) of its subsidiary Quilmes Industrial (Quinsa), Société Anonyme ("Quinsa") that are not owned by AmBev or its subsidiaries. AmBev owns, directly and indirectly, approximately 97% of the voting interest and approximately 91% of the economic interest in Quinsa.

The offer will be made by AmBev and the purchase price will be U.S.$4.0625 per Class A share, U.S.$40.625 per Class B share (U.S.$81.25 per ADS), in cash (less any amounts withheld under applicable tax laws), without interest; provided, however, that in the event at least 5,968,722 Class B shares (including Class B shares held as ADSs) are tendered (and not validly withdrawn), the purchase price will be increased to U.S.$4.125 per Class A share, U.S.$41.25 per Class B share (U.S.$82.50 per ADS).

The offer will be subject to certain customary conditions that will be described in the offer to purchase, but there will be no minimum tender condition.
